

eBay Pallets

ebay Pallets

Ever wondered how ebay online stores and auction sites are able to sell merchandise at prices below wholesale and still make money. The source of the merchandise is the key to the low pricing. We sell large amounts of overstock and surplus liquidation to a vast number of ebay power sellers and online stores. Ebay sellers are able to purchase numerous products at drastically reduced rates from us. As a contracted liquidator, we are able to purchase large amounts of liquidation directly from the company liquidating their inventory, closeouts, overruns, surplus, clearance, salvage, returns, or distressed merchandise. We are not brokers, which means we own what we sell. Owning the liquidation means we can sell to you at a lower price. With year of experience and enormous purchasing power, we can offer exciting bargain deals on major name brand products for a small percentage of wholesale value. Below wholesale merchandise is sold everyday at bargain stores, liquidation centers, and discount stores, on ebay, yard sales, flea markets, cart vendors, and fundraisers. Several truckloads of salvage merchandise is secured and mixed at our warehouse to supply you with liquidation pallets of general merchandise , sporting goods , electronics , kitchenware , tools , domestics , apparel , footwear , office furniture , home décor, giftware , dollar store items , accessories , office supplies , furniture , and more. You will be amazed at the low prices and quality of the liquidation we sell. We choose our sources carefully to offer better quality liquidation merchandise to our customers. We urge you to speak with one of our professional liquidator specialist to match you with the liquidation products you need.
